All individuals identified in Plaintiffs' live Complaint.
All individuals identified in documents produced through the discovery process.
Contact information for the following individuals is publicly available: 1. All Texas County Chairs 2. All Texas County Election Officials 3. All Texas County Judges

In addition, the Entity Plaintiffs in this case have knowledge regarding the allegations set forth in Plaintiffs' live pleadings. State Defendants therefore incorporate by reference those individuals identified by the Entity Plaintiffs in their Rule 26(a)(1) Initial Disclosures and Amended Initial Disclosures as having information related to the Entity Plaintiffs' mission, history, operations, membership, programs and activities, finances and expenses, and purported injuries, along with any individual identified as a corporate representative of the Entity Plaintiffs through the course of this litigation.

C. Tertiary Individuals (Tier 3)

Individuals within the following categories of persons may have discoverable information related to the claims and defenses at issue in these cases.

1. The State Representatives and Senators who authored, co-authored, sponsored, or co-sponsored S.B. 1 or the three predecessor bills may have discoverable information on the legislative process related to the passage of S.B. 1. Their contact information is a matter of public record and is available at https:// txdirectory.com and in State Defendants' previous filings. See ECF 112.
2. The State Representatives and Senators who were members of the Senate State Affairs Committee, the House Elections Committee, or the House Select Committee on Constitutional Rights and Remedies during the consideration of S.B. 1 and the three predecessor bills listed above may have discoverable information on the legislative process related to the passage of S.B. 1 and, specifically, on hearings conducted on those bills. Their contact information is a matter of public record and is available at <https://txdirectory.com> and in State Defendants' previous filings. See ECF 112.
3. Witnesses who testified for, against, or on S.B. 1 may have discoverable information that relates to the claims and defenses at issue in this litigation, particularly as pertains to the reasons that members of the public supported or opposed to the legislation. Lists of the witnesses who testified during the consideration of S.B. 1 were previously disclosed by State Defendants and can be found in the case docket. See ECF 116–17. State Defendants do not have the contact information for these persons at this time.
4. All unidentified members, supporters, clients, and constituents of the Entity Plaintiffs, as well as all the unidentified members of the Entity Plaintiffs' leadership may have discoverable information that relates to the claims and defenses at issue in this litigation, particularly as it pertains to standing and any disability-based claim. These individuals may be contacted through the Entity Plaintiffs' counsel of record.
5. To the extent that any of the Individual Plaintiffs or any of the members of Entity Plaintiffs have qualifying disabilities under the ADA or the Rehabilitation Act or require assistance voting by reason of blindness or disability under Section 208 of the VRA, those persons' physicians have discoverable information on their patients' disability or blindness and their treatment history. State Defendants do not have contact information for these persons at this time.

6. To the extent that any of the Individual Plaintiffs or any of the members of Entity Plaintiffs require assistance voting because he or she is unable to read or write, those persons have discoverable information regarding educational records, and education history. State Defendants do not have contact information for these persons at this time.
7. There may be discoverable information related to the claims and defenses at issue in these cases in the possession of unnamed local election officials throughout the State of Texas, including but not limited to county clerks, county tax assessor-collectors, county election administrators, county commissioners, county judges, the county chairs of political parties, city secretaries, any person acting as the early voting clerk, members of early voting ballot boards, members of signature-verification committees, presiding judges, alternate presiding judges, election clerks, poll watchers, and district attorneys. State Defendants do not have contact information for these persons at this time.
8. State Defendants incorporate by reference any individual or entity, not previously named or mentioned herein, identified by the other Parties to this consolidated action in their Rule 26(a)(1) Initial Disclosures, Amended Initial Disclosures, and Supplemental Disclosures.

II. A copy – or a description by category and location – of all documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things that the disclosing party has in his or her possession, custody, or control and may use to support his or her claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment.

A. Legislative History Compilations

State Defendants previously produced and filed with the court a compilation of legislative-history materials for S.B. 1 (2d Special Session), S.B. 1 (1st Special Session), S.B. 7 (Regular Session), and H.B. 6 (Regular Session). All of these documents can be accessed through the case docket. See ECF 116–17. They are also made publicly available by Texas Legislature at <https://capitol.texas.gov/Home.aspx>.

In addition to the aforementioned legislative materials, legislative-history materials for H.B. 3 (First Special Session), S.B. 331 (Regular Session), and S.B. 1509 (Regular Session) are public available at the official website for the Texas Legislature. Specifically, a compilation of those materials is available online at the following locations:

- H.B. 3 – <https://capitol.texas.gov/BillLookup/History.aspx?LegSess=871&Bill=HB3>

- S.B. 331 – <https://capitol.texas.gov/BillLookup/History.aspx?LegSess=87R&Bill=SB331>
- S.B. 1509 – <https://capitol.texas.gov/BillLookup/History.aspx?LegSess=87R&Bill=SB1509>

State Defendants specifically reserve the right to amend or supplement these disclosures as they identify additional documents, testimony, and legislation that relate to the passage of S.B. 1.

B. Bill Analyses

Bill analyses of S.B.1 and its predecessor bills including analyses of their impact on state operations. Documents relating to these assessments have been produced by State Defendants. See ECF 116–17. In addition to the previously produced bill analysis, please find supplemental materials online at the following locations:

- H.B. 3 – <https://capitol.texas.gov/tlodocs/86R/analysis/html/HB00003S.htm>
- S.B. 331 – <https://capitol.texas.gov/tlodocs/87R/analysis/html/SB00331H.htm>
- S.B. 1509 – <https://capitol.texas.gov/tlodocs/87R/analysis/html/SB01509S.htm>

State Defendants reserve claims of privilege and protections provided by the attorney work-product protection; attorney-client privilege; or any other applicable privilege, protection, doctrine, or immunity related to these materials.

C. Election Complaints

Election complaints may be submitted to the Secretary of State. If, after receiving a complaint alleging criminal conduct in connection with an election, the Secretary of State determines that there is reasonable cause to suspect that the alleged criminal conduct occurred, the Secretary of State shall refer the complaint to the Attorney General for further investigation and possible prosecution. Documents relating to these complaints have been produced by State Defendants. See, e.g., STATE032025–STATE 032082. In addition, State Defendants produced a chart from the Office of the Attorney General of Texas that lists pending and resolved prosecutions for election fraud violations, see STATE001144–STATE001159 and STATE087323–STATE087339, as well as a chart from the Office of the Attorney General of Texas that lists election fraud complaints that were referred by the Office of the Secretary of State, STATE107717-STATE107732. State Defendants may rely on these charts or on any publicly available information related to the investigations listed. Finally, State Defendants may also rely on any publicly available documents related to investigations or prosecutions of election crimes by any county attorney or district attorney in any Texas county, including but not limited to Bexar, Dallas, El Paso, Harris, Hidalgo, Travis County. State Defendants reserve claims of privilege and any protections provided by the attorney work-product protection; attorney-client privilege; investigative privilege; or any other applicable privilege, protection, doctrine, or immunity related to these materials.

D. Revised Forms

The Office of the Secretary of State has created or revised election-related forms in accordance with S.B. 1. State Defendants have produced copies of many of these forms in this litigation, including Form Nos. 4-20, 4-21, 5-6, 5-21, 6-2, 6-3, 6-4, 6-6, 6-7, 6-12, 6-13, 6-15, 6-16, 6-17, 6-19, 6-35, 6-36, 7-7, 7-13, 7-14, 7-58, 7-59, 7-80, 8-24, 13-1, 13-6, and 13-7. State Defendants may rely on these forms or on any other publicly available form located at <https://www.sos.texas.gov/elections/forms/pol-sub/index.shtml>. State Defendants reserve claims of privilege and any protections provided by the attorney work-product protection; attorney-client privilege; or any other applicable privilege, protection, doctrine, or immunity related to these materials.

E. Advisory Materials

The Office of the Secretary of State has issued election advisories and other guidance materials, and given presentations, to election officials that summarized the election-related legislation enacted in 2021. State Defendants have produced multiple advisories in this litigation, including Election Advisory Nos. 2021-03, 2021-04, 2021-05, 2021-09, 2021-10, 2021-11, 2021-12, 2021-13, 2021-14, 2021-21, 2021-24, 2022-01, 2022-02, 2022-03, 2022-04, 2022-05, 2022-06, 2022-07, 2022-08, 2022-09, 2022-10, 2022-12, 2022-13, 2022-14, 2022-16, 2022-18, 2022-19, 2022-20, 2022-25, 2020-26, and 2022-37. State Defendants may rely on these advisories or on any other publicly available election advisory located at <https://www.sos.state.tx.us/elections/laws/election-division-advisories.shtml>. State Defendants reserve claims of privilege and any protections provided by the attorney work-product protection; attorney-client privilege; or any other applicable privilege, protection, doctrine, or immunity related to these materials.

F. Other Documents

State Defendants may rely on any publicly available document maintained by any election administrator or county clerk in any county in Texas, including but not limited to Bexar, Cameron, Dallas, El Paso, Harris, Hidalgo, and Travis Counties. Additionally, State Defendants may rely on any document or communication produced in response to party discovery requests and Rule 45 subpoenas. See STATE0000001–STATE137748 and TXLEG0000001–TXLEG00004666. State Defendants reserve claims of relevance, privilege, and any protections provided by the attorney work-product protection; attorney-client privilege; legislative privilege; investigative privilege; deliberative process privilege; or any other applicable privilege, protection, doctrine, or immunity related to these materials
